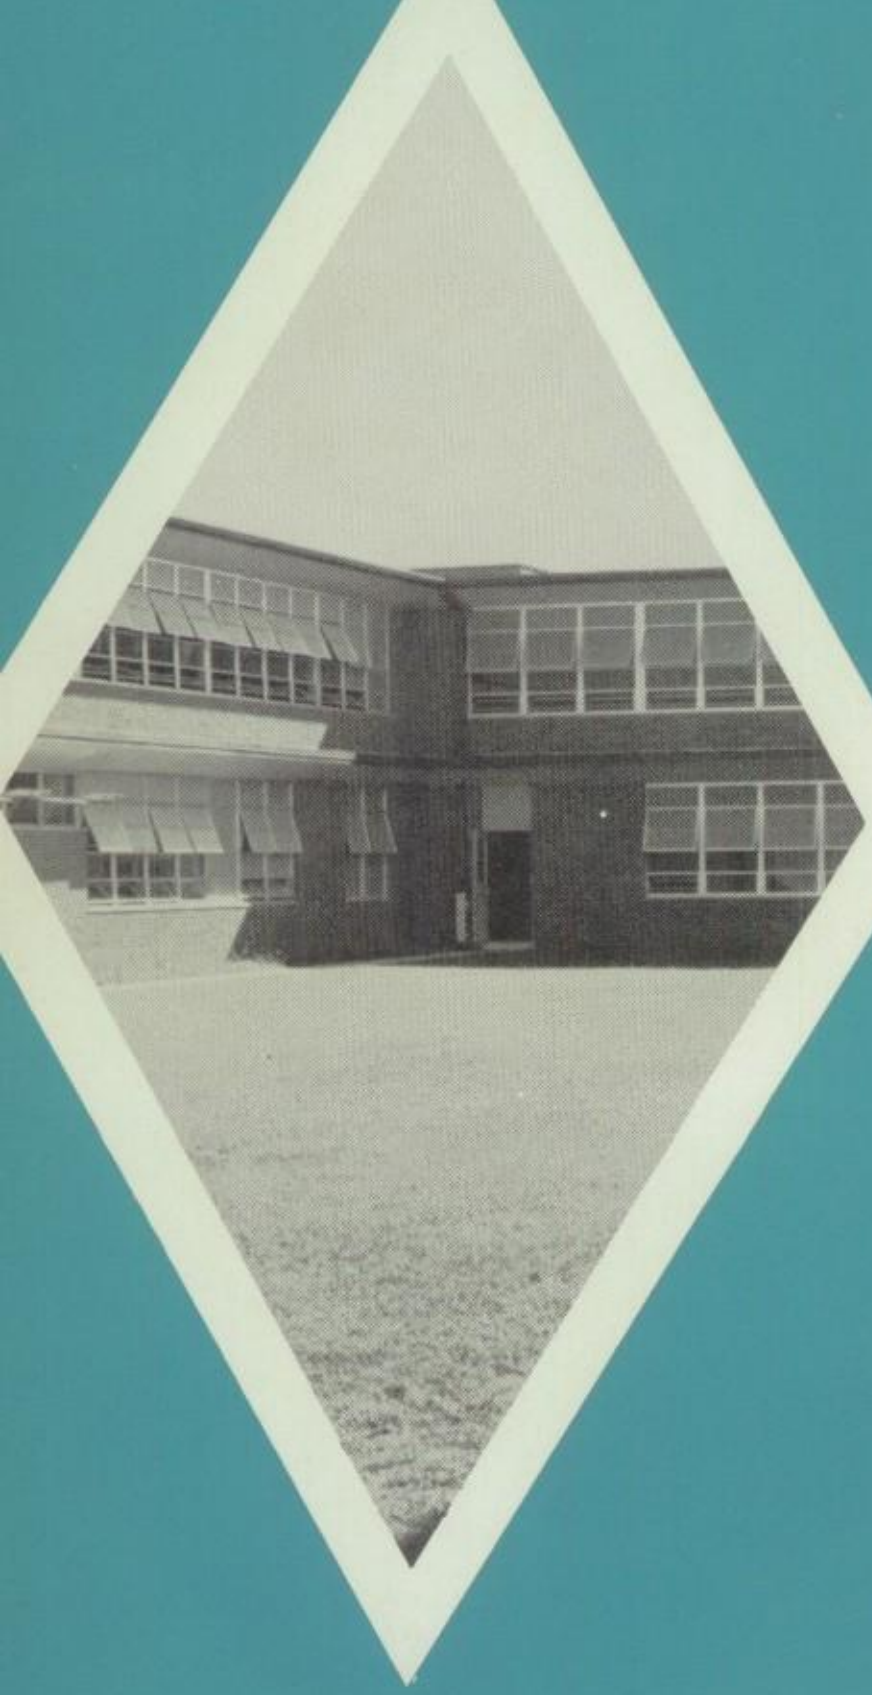
Foreword



Greetings from the staff of the 1961 Roarer.

With a faculty of fifty-one and a million-and-a-half-dollar plant covering thirty-two acres, Ouachita Parish High School has completed the third year in its new home.

Ouachita, one of the most comprehensive high schools in North Louisiana, includes in its curriculum, not only basic and college preparatory courses such as English, languages, science, social studies and mathematics; but also subjects such as Distributive Education and Office Education, which prepare students for careers immediately upon graduation. Courses in music, art, homemaking and speech are also offered.

As part of the curriculum Ouachita offers training in trades in the state-supported trade school in West Monroe.

Ouachita students gain valuable experience in leadership through the many clubs and other extracurricular activities of the school.

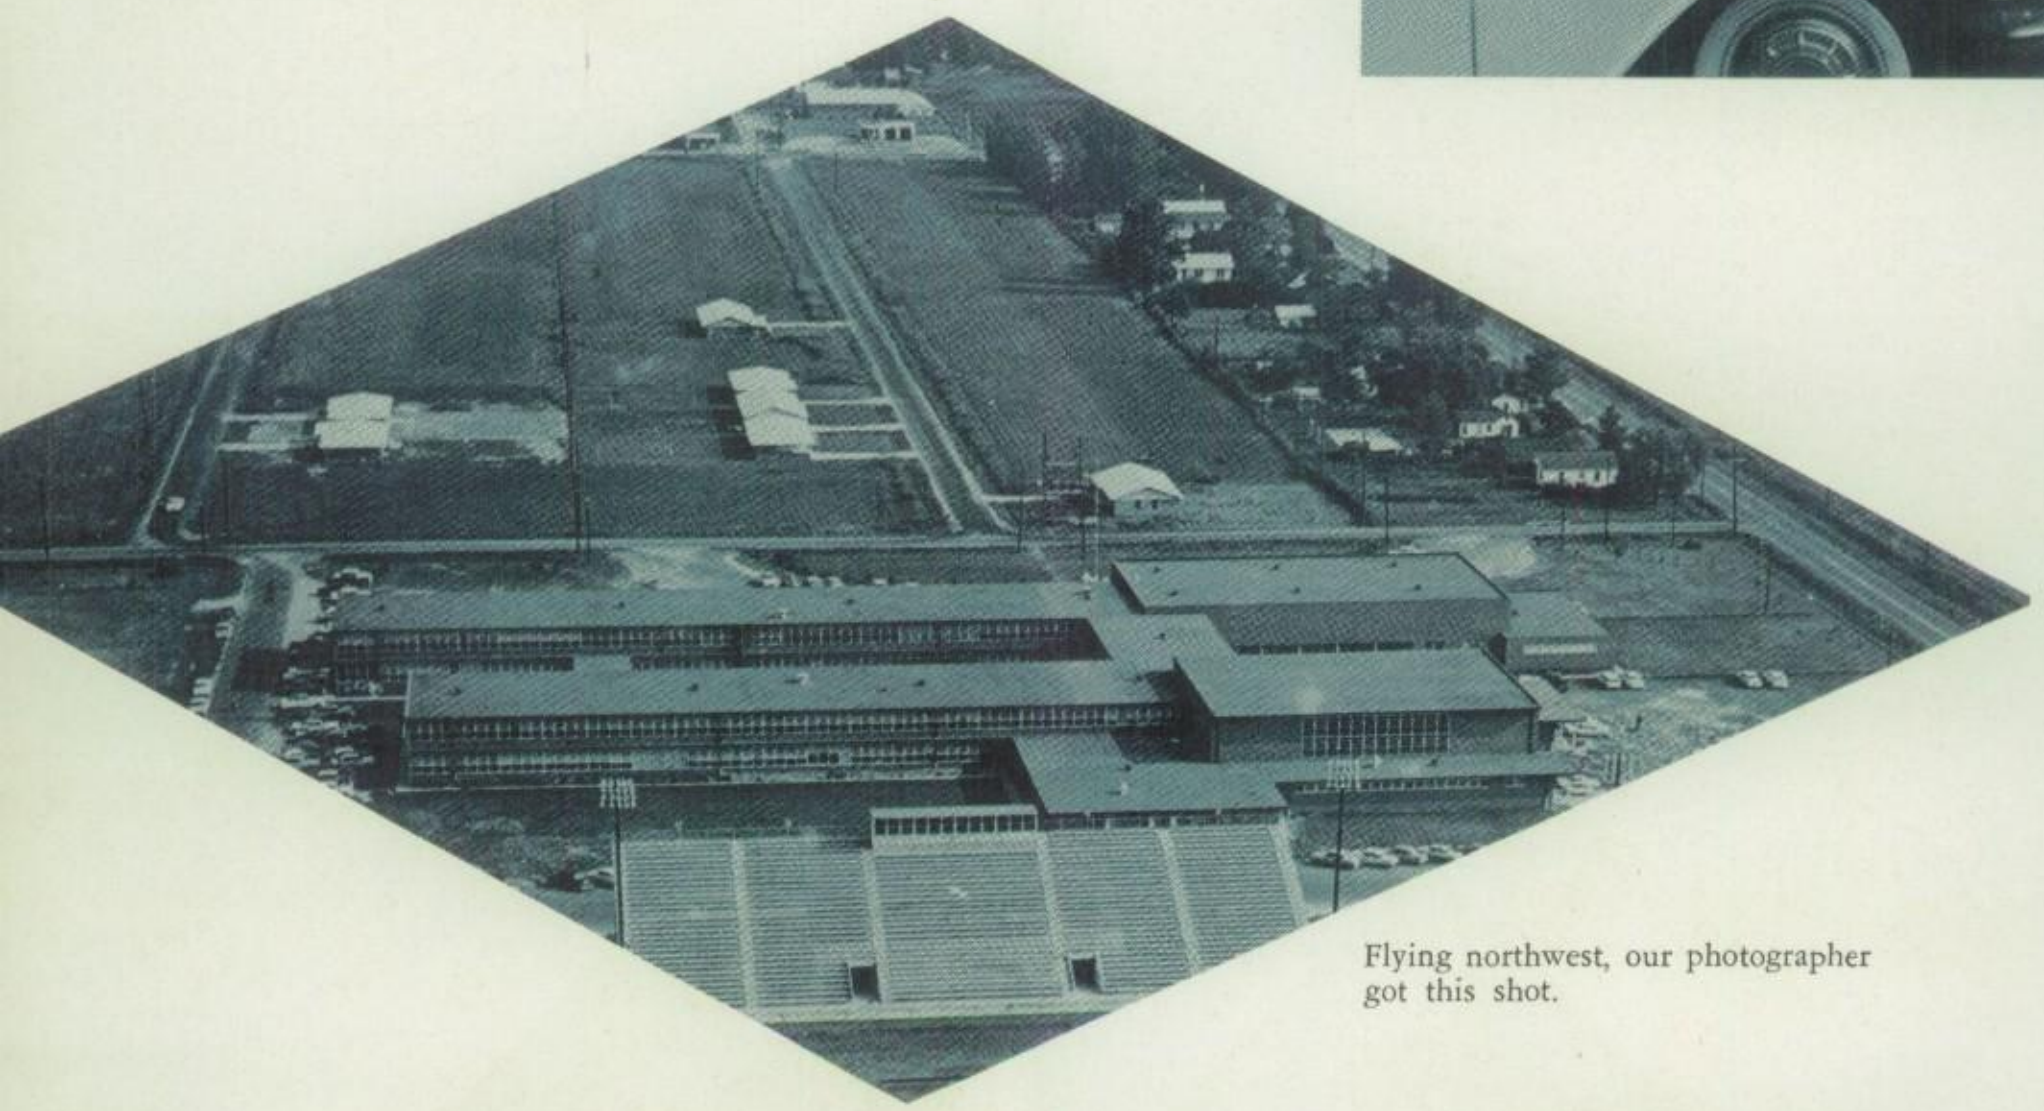
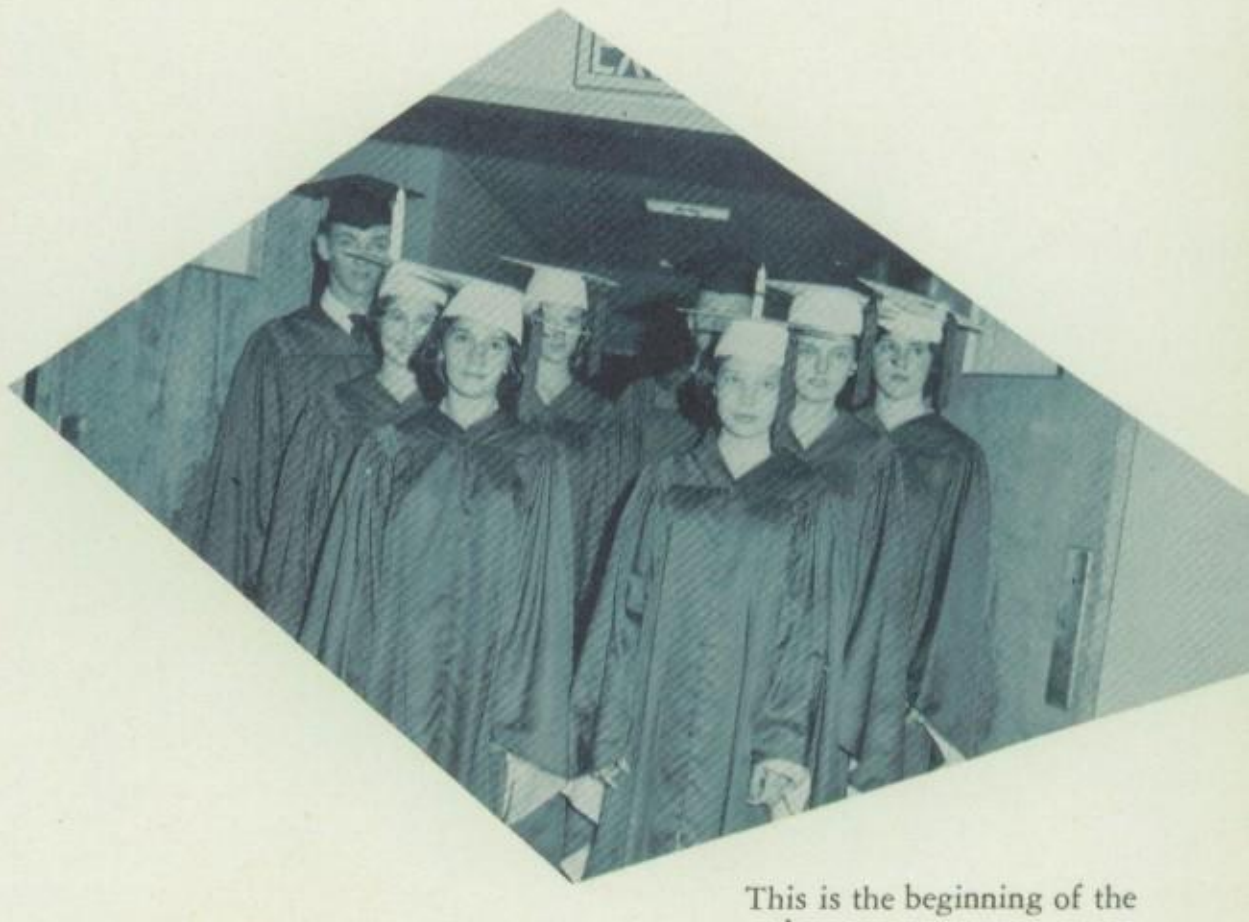
Only year before last, it was all dust.



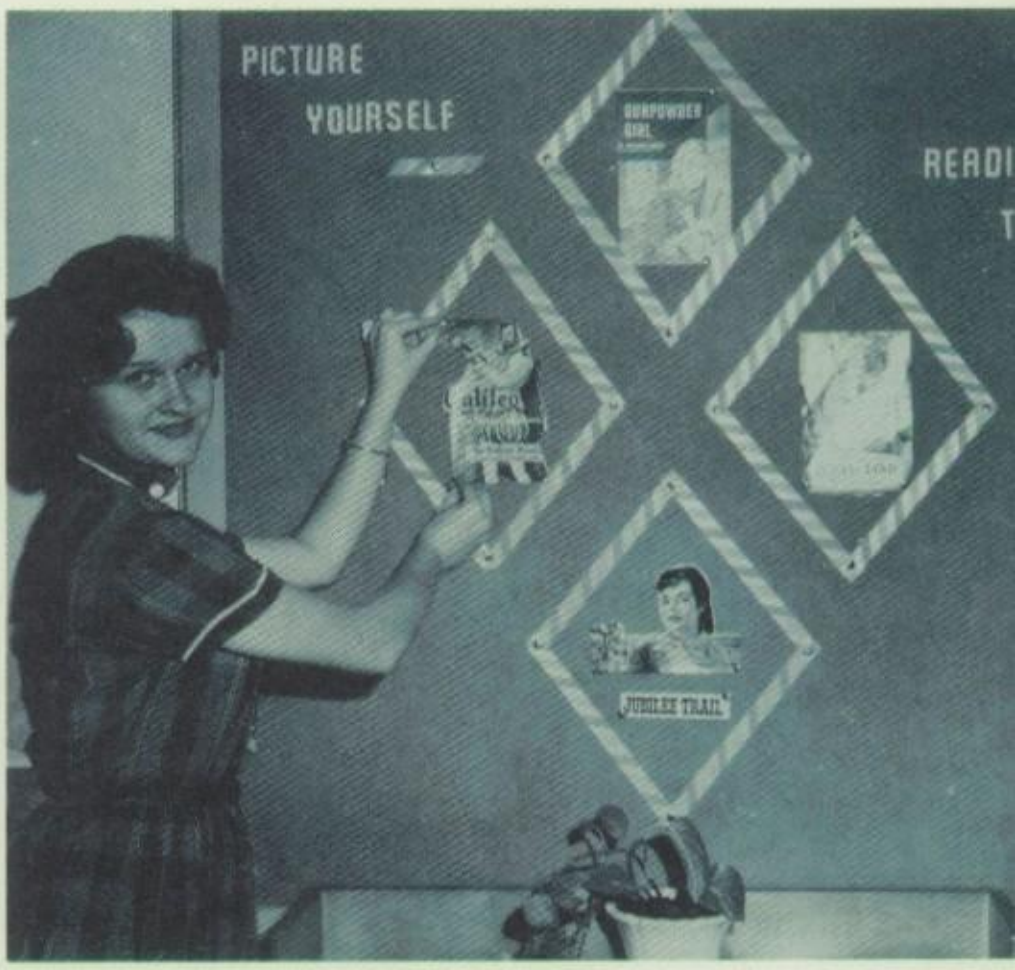
Flying northwest, our photographer got this shot.

Coaches inspect football field before big game.



This is the beginning of the end.

Someday, there'll be lots of shade.



The library always furnishes a variety of literature.

A long day begins.

OUACHITA

ARISH HIGH SCHO

Becoming a senior is a solemn occasion.

Student Life

Synchronized—that's our cheerleaders.

Dressed in "Sunday best," Lionettes arrive at tea.

Pep meetings are supposed to be fun.

The Choir's won lots of these.

At last! Great day arrives.

"Smarty" students receive Savings Bonds.

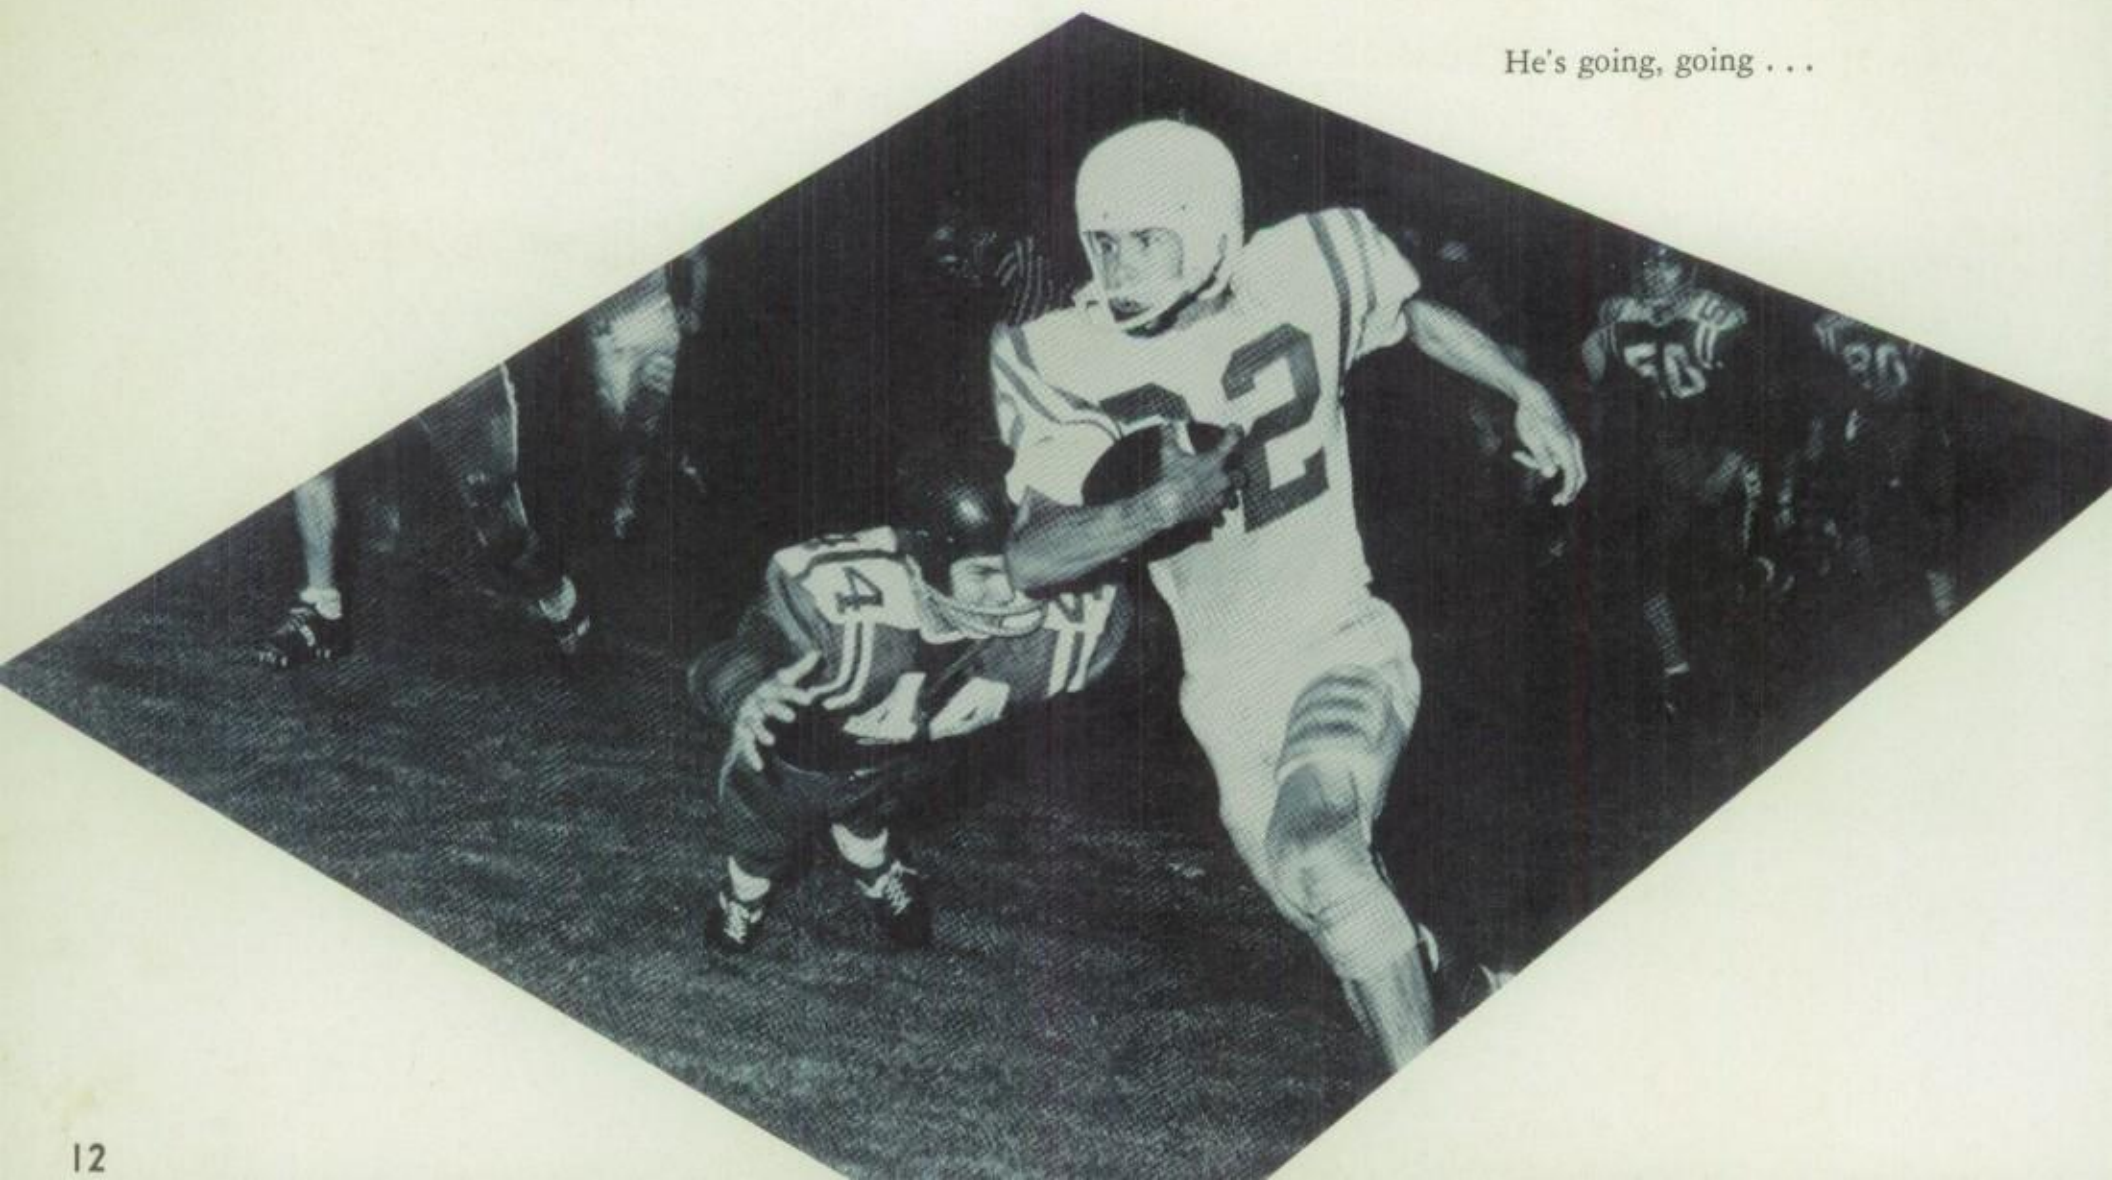
Coaches map strategy under the scoreboard.

Our award-winning choir performs at spring concert.

At Work and Play

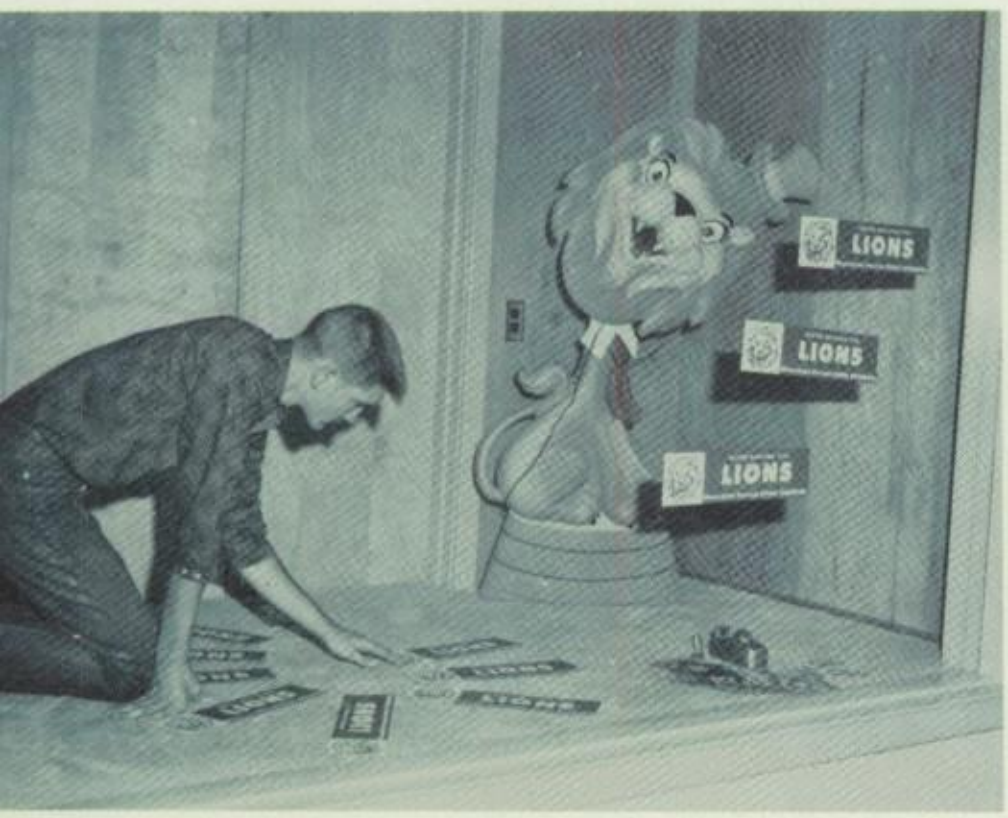
"And so, in conclusion . . ."

"To the prettiest girl in school—"



He's going, going . . .

"Hup, two, three, four . . ."



D.E. roars for Lions.

So that's how you say it!

Library assistants keep things running smoothly.

Hollywood should see these!

These cats are way out!

Any extras?

Memorable Occasions

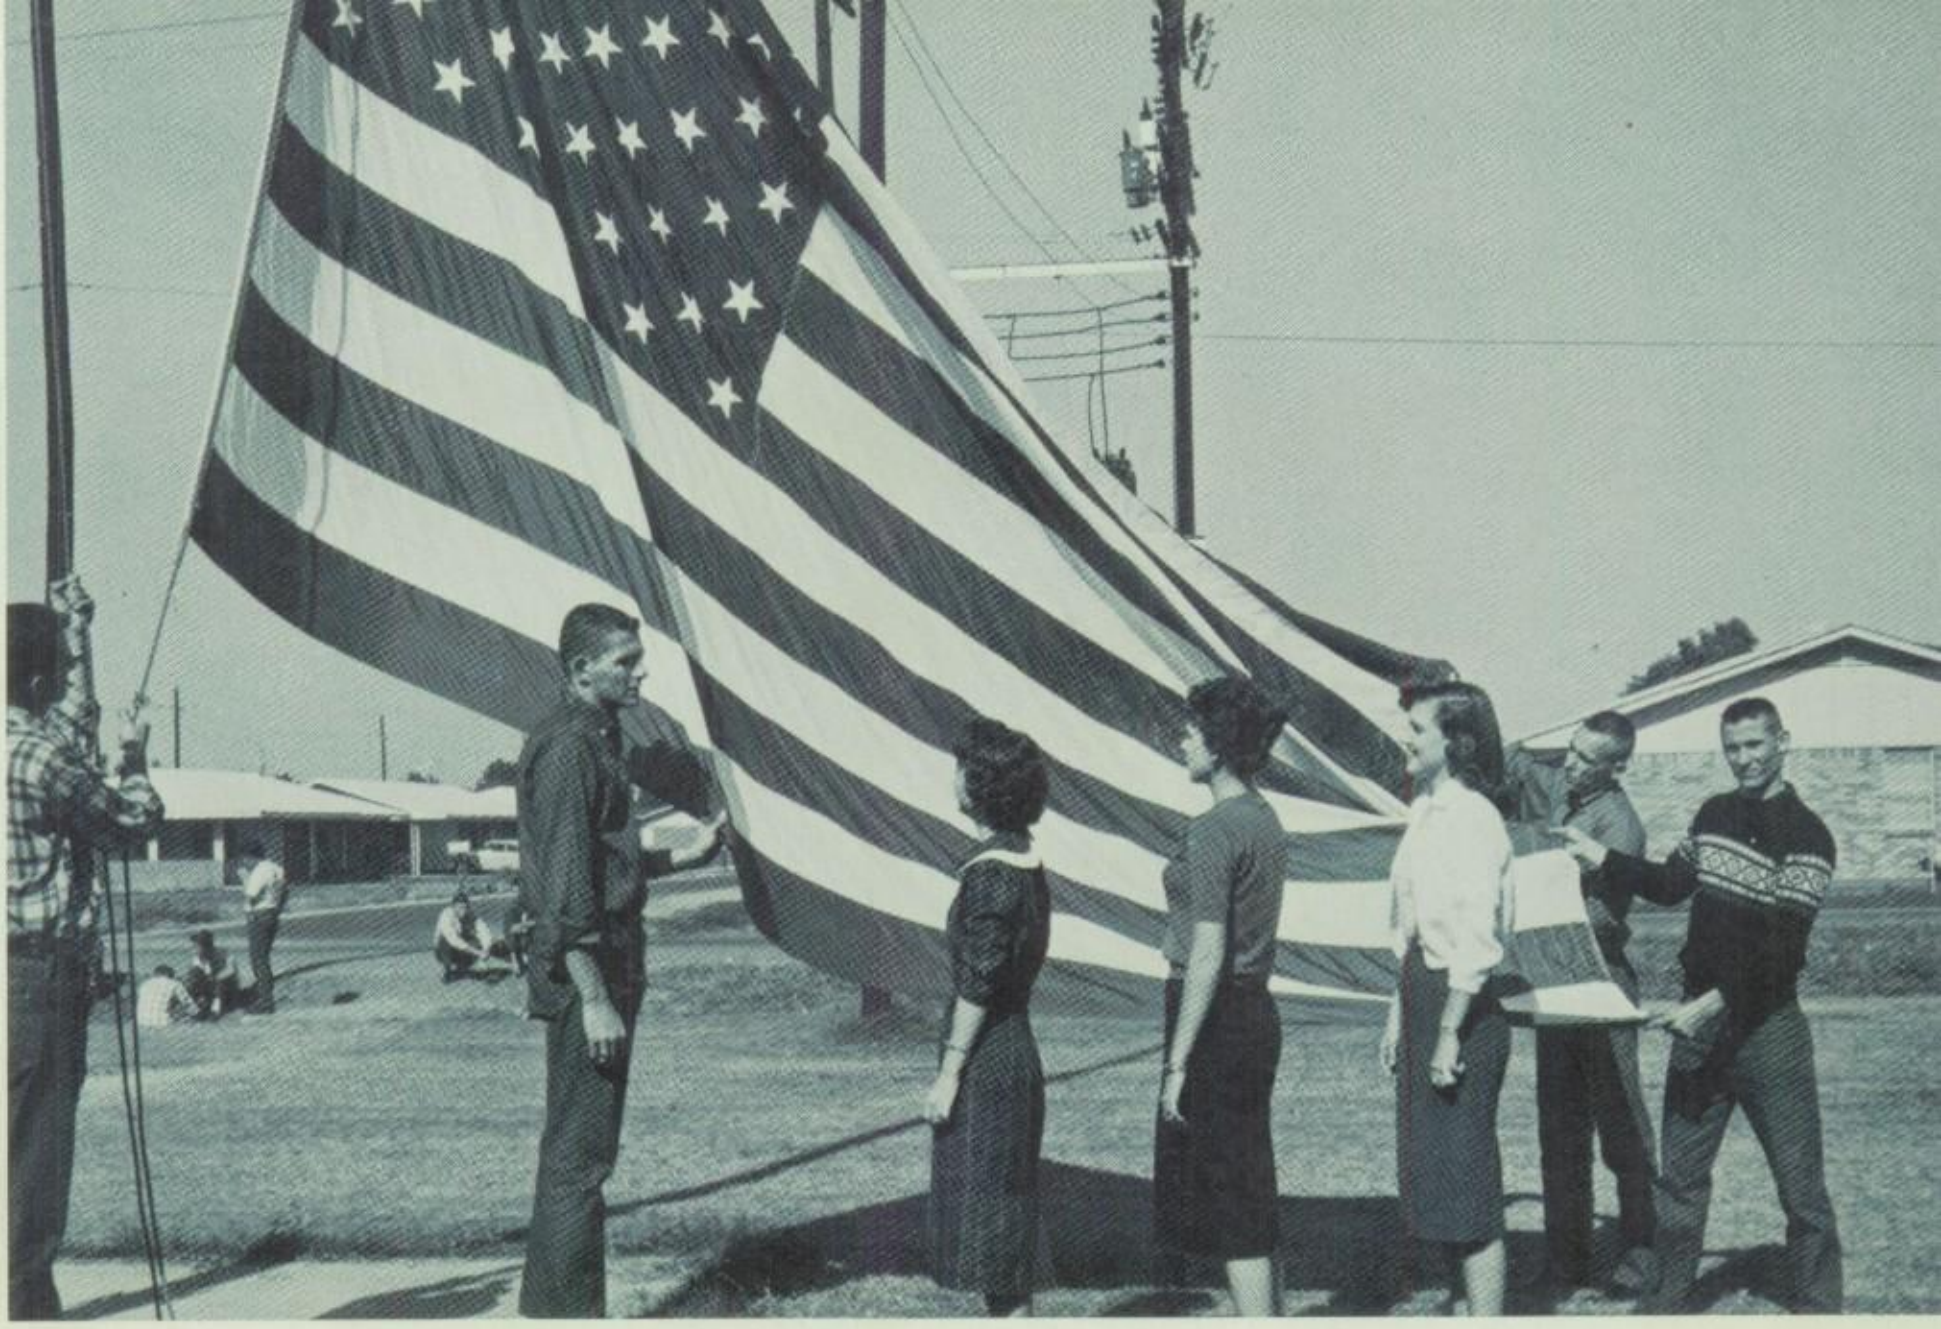
Prom decorators prepare for "big night."

Mr. "Bru" distributes another award.

It's all in a day's work.

Look at those cats go!

We need more balloons!



Dedication

To Mr. G. S. Manning, in recognition of the high standard of work he has maintained in the classroom, and in appreciation of the long hours he has spent in performing his duties as Athletic Manager and in other extracurricular activities, we the staff proudly dedicate the 1961 ROARER.

Activities

Roarer
1961

Ask anyone on the staff if getting out a yearbook is easy. He will give you a quick "NO!", and then just as quickly add that it's the feeling of pride one has when the book is finished that really counts. He will also add that the fun and companionship enjoyed in room 213 makes this activity one of the most important in his high school life.

The Lion

A traditional part of life at O.P.H.S., the Lion entertains and informs students of school activities. This publication, which contains cartoons and pictures in addition to news and special features, is edited mainly by the journalism class under the direction of Mrs. Caressa Walker. Finances are secured by an advertising staff, sponsored by Mrs. A. L. Tatum, through circulation of the paper.

JO ANNE EMERSON,
Business Manager

Much hard work and fun has been put forth by the Lion advertising staff under the leadership of Mrs. A. L. Tatum.

This group uses vacant periods and spare time to sell advertising for the publication.

Seated: Lana Bennett, Linda Ragland, Bernadine Semmes.
Standing: Jackalene Caffrey, Billie Easterling, Sue Chennault, Jiles Davis.

O.P.H.S. Choir

The O.P.H.S. Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Lloydelle Thomas, is one of the most active organizations in the school.

Singing at various church services in the Twin Cities, sponsoring an annual car wash, participating in district and state music festivals, and performing at the Christmas and spring concerts are just a few of the many activities of this outstanding organization. A trip to Gulf Hill concluded the year's activities for the group.

In demand for club meetings, banquets, and other functions is the boys' quartet composed of Frank Swindle, Raymond Mears, Ronnie Stephens, Roger Deal.

Mixed Ensemble

In great demand around the Twin Cities is the Ouachita Parish High School Mixed Ensemble. This group, under the direction of Mrs. Lloydelle Thomas, performed at Open House, Career Day, church services, the Rotary Club, the Kiwanis Club, and other community functions. The group also received its usual high rating at the annual music festival.

Ronnie Brothers is the accompanist for the group.

The Band Council is composed of Chuck Rugg, Linda Cooper, Ina Beth Causey, Tana Rhodes, Marquerite May, Jackye Burris, and Wayne Rader.

Majorettes are: Judy Otwell, Carla Brupbacher, Sharon Jones, Tana Rhodes, Drum Major, Shirley Loflin, Pam Jones, Ninkie Boyd.

This year marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Ouachita Band. Dr. William P. Latham, one of the finest composers for bands, wrote a composition in honor of this event, and it was performed at the Silver Anniversary concert for the first time. Guest conducting this concert was Mr. Walter Minniear, founder and director of the O.P.H.S. Band for thirteen years.

The band performed, with the Lionettes, at all football games. Included in the activities were several parades, including those for Homecoming, Boy Scouts, Christmas, and Cotton Festival, and the Columbia rodeo.

The group participated in all festivals of the Louisiana Music Educators Association, including marching, solo and ensemble, and concert. The Ouachita band was also well represented in the Louisiana All-State Band and Orchestra.

The year's activities were climaxed with the annual banquet, at which time awards were made to outstanding students.

Seated: Evelyn McGowen, Jo Ann Bagwell, Pat Guice.
Row One: Norma Trichel, Priscilla Humphries, Sue Chennault, Georgia Wood, Betty Rogers.
Row Two: Margie Terry, Anna Welker, Carol Peters.
Row Three: Bobbie Rogers, Joy Humble, Susan Devereux, Kathryn Sievers.

Office Assistants

The office assistants, voluntary workers, are kept busy with the many jobs of answering the phone, delivering messages, distributing mail, running errands for teachers, and checking students out of school.

Sharon Boyd, Cherry Tousinau, Glenda Hart, Pat Guice.

Pelican States

At the end of their junior year, delegates, elected by their classmates and approved by the faculty, attend Pelican State at Louisiana State University for a nine-day session.

Sponsored by the American Legion, Pelican State acquaints delegates with the rights, responsibilities, and privileges of American citizens.

The students are kept busy learning about elections, the making of laws, and the duties of city, parish, and state officials.

But Pelican State is not all work, for delegates meet students from all parts of the state, and they are provided recreational facilities by the university.

At the end of the session, the delegates cast their votes on voting machines for state officials.

Seated: Ronnie Weir, Marshall Douglas, Errold Seiler.
Standing: Roger Deal, Ronney Thomas, Fred Moore.

Grace Cascio and Johnny Roach.

Good Citizen

Sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution and the American Legion, the Good Citizens are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, participation in school activities, and service to the school. Grace Cascio and Johnny Roach were chosen by the Senior Class of 1961 to represent Ouachita.

Leadership Conference

Ouachita's only representative at Leadership Conference was Ruth Brooks, representing the Library Club. Leadership Conference is held annually on the L.S.U. campus during August.

Specialized daily classes and group activities including a banquet and a talent show were highlights of the meet.

Ruth Brooks

Ronnie Brothers

Music Guild Award

The recipient of the Music Guild Award for 1961 is Ronnie Brothers. This is the second year this award has been made to an outstanding music student, either vocal or instrumental.

Who's Who

The staff proudly presents the second edition of the Who's Who section. Included for the purpose of giving recognition to all outstanding seniors, these students were selected as typical students for the qualities they represent.

Although many students deserve a place on these pages, the faculty has selected these representatives of a fine graduating class.

Jeffersonian Club

A historical club for interested students, the Jeffersonian Club is one of the oldest clubs at Ouachita.

Among the activities of the club for this year were taking trips to Vicksburg and to the Natchez Pilgrimage, and sponsoring the annual talent show.

The receipts from the talent show were given to the Carolyn Rose Strauss Rehabilitation Center.

F. D. Woolie is faculty sponsor of the club.

Seated: Grace Cascio, Reporter; Glenda Hart, Secretary.
Standing: Butch Oglesbee, Treasurer; Wayde Rawls, Vice-President; Marshall Douglas, President.

Art Club

Students who are enrolled in or who have completed a year of art with a B average are eligible for membership in this hard-working organization sponsored by Miss Birdie Hatton.

The largest project completed by the club this year was the construction of a stage backdrop for the State J.C.L. Convention. Members also made scenery for the choir concert, gave an exhibit on the school Hi-Lites TV Program, made posters for school functions, and won first place with their homecoming float. They raised money to buy a bulletin board for the hall on which student work was exhibited.

Individual members were encouraged to enter art exhibits and poster contests.

Seated: Virginia Cascio, Treasurer; Glenda Case, Secretary; Tish Poe, President.
Standing: Jerry Griggs, Reporter; Wayne Rader, Vice-President; William Kidd, Historian.

Modern Foreign Language Club

Members of Modern Foreign Language Club enjoy spring party.

Compra usted!—"buy," was the cry heard in the hall on Mexican Market Day, as members of the Modern Foreign Language Club sold colorful articles made in Old Mexico.

Composed of students of Spanish and French, the club had a successful first year separate from the Latin Students, the old Foreign Language Club having been divided into two organizations. Club sessions were concentrated on learning more about the French and Spanish speaking countries through the use of slides, records, and skits. The group is sponsored by Mrs. Cynthia Leigh.

Junior Classical League

Members make plans for Junior Classical League State Convention held here in March.

Spending much time on plans and preparation, the O.P.H.S. Chapter of the Junior Classical League hosted the State J.C.L. Convention in March. These Latin students, sponsored by Mrs. Cynthia Leigh, also took part in the Homecoming parade, and co-sponsored a sock-hop.

Club members Paula Bauer, Karen Bauer, voting delegate from Louisiana; and Judy Willis, corresponding secretary for the state, attended the National J.C.L. Convention in Albuquerque, New Mexico, last summer.

Library Club

First Row: Ruth Brooks, President; Mary Ann Valentine, Secretary; Dorothy Conville, Historian.
Second Row: Amos Price, Treasurer; Jim Catching, Vice-President.

After having won the "Club of the Year" award last spring, the Library Club began the new school year with special enthusiasm. Projects, old and new, included planting shrubbery and the sale of paper back books to encourage the building of better home libraries.

"Fun" projects were the annual field trip and an initiation party.

The club also sent delegates to the Louisiana Teen-age Libraries conventions, where Ruth Brooks officiated as state secretary.

Medics Club

The purpose of the Medics Club is to interest students in the various fields of medicine.

Members of the club have gained some medical knowledge and experience by giving fifty hours of service at the local hospitals, for which they received Medics pins.

Valuable information has also been gained through lectures by guest speakers. Sponsor of the club is Mrs. Felix Willey.

Seated: Pat Eanes, secretary; Judy Cox, president; Evelyn McGowan, sergeant-at-arms.
Standing: Joan Griffin, reporter; Jackie Little, parliamentarian; Ann Glass, treasurer.

Y-Teens admire their display in D.E. window.

A religious and social group, the Y-Teens is open to any girl, grades seven through twelve, who meets the requirements and lives up to the standards of the Y.W.C.A.

Sponsored by Miss Bess Sharp, Y.W.C.A. Secretary, the groups meet weekly to discuss business and plan service projects.

Each week, an inspirational "Thought of the Week" is read over the public address system by one of the Y-Teens.

Highlighting this year's activities were a recognition ceremonial for all Y-Teens, the annual Valentine Tea for the Faculty, and the "Be Kind To Teachers" Week.

The 1960 Football Season

Ouachita's Lions, led by Head Coach Bob Ellen, began this year by winning five of their ten scheduled games.

The Lions swept to easy victories in their first five games, winning them all by shut-outs.

Jonesboro-Hodge fell by a 12-0 score in the season's first game. In their next tilt, the Ouachita Eleven surprised sportscasters by upsetting the Ruston Bearcats, 13-0. Victories over Woodlawn, Bastrop, and Haynesville extended the string to five.

Against some of the best teams in the state, Ouachita played well, but lost their next five games. They fell to Fair Park, West Monroe, Byrd, Bossier City, and Neville.

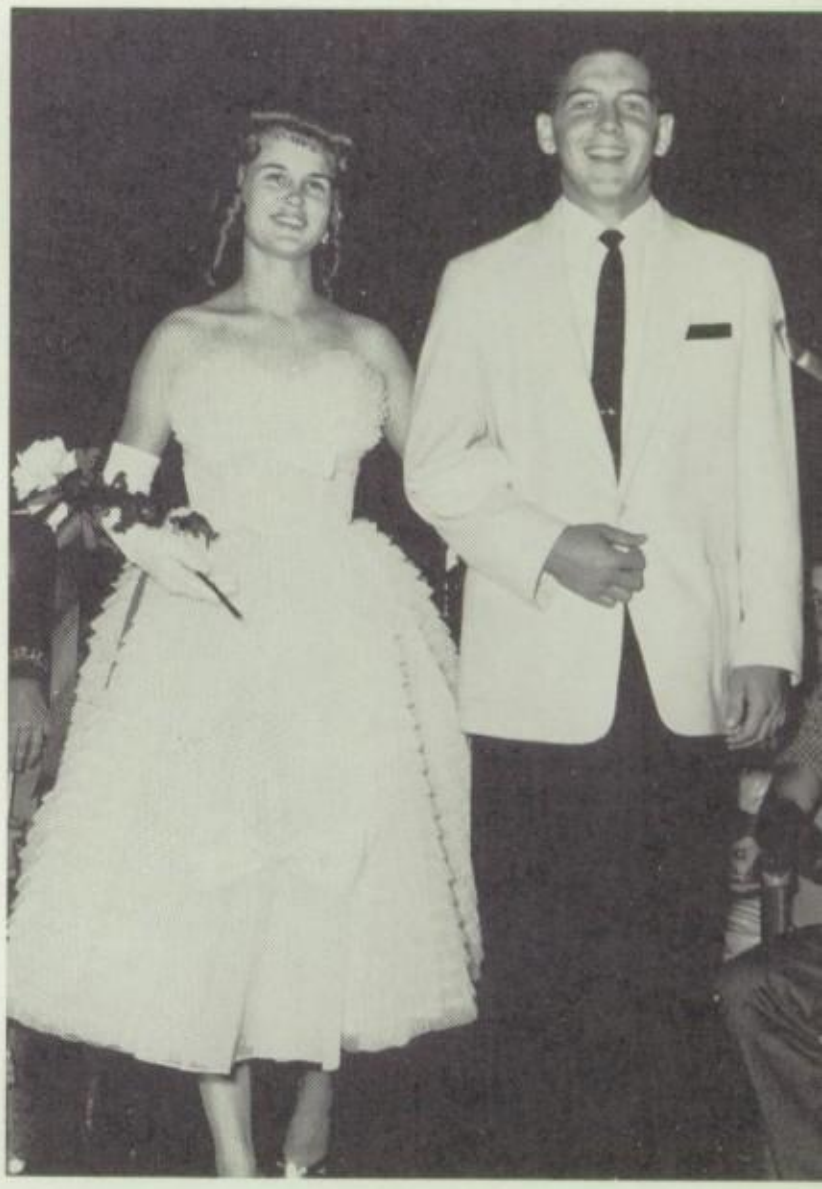
Homecoming 1960

Not me!

"Hitched to a Lucky Star," the Art Club float, takes first place in Homecoming Parade

Homecoming day began with the assembly in which head coach Bob Ellen announced the name of the Homecoming Queen, Peggy McDowell, and Maid of Honor, De Lane Cooper, chosen by the football squad.

A parade through downtown Monroe and a football victory over Haynesville climaxed the day and brought down the final curtain on the gala occasion.



Soon, we'll know!

Homecoming court awaits announcement of queen and maid-of-honor.

Hopes for the district championship and a spot in the state play-offs were high as boys with height and potential reported for the first basketball practices. However, the group failed to progress as expected and finished in a tie for last place with a 3-7 record in conference play.

In non-conference play, the Lions did better, as they won four trophies and the Twin-City Championship with a 19-5 record.
